

Order Form

Ship to:

Name: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

email address: _____

phone number (for subscription purposes only; email addresses change often):

How did you hear about the Homesteader? _____

Please check your choice (subscription will begin with the current issue):

- 1-year subscription (2 issues): $11 (includes shipping + tax)
- 2-year subscription (4 issues): $20 (includes shipping + tax)

To order single issues or multi-packs, circle your choice (all prices include shipping and tax):

- | | | | |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------|-----------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. Summer 2002 ($6.00) | 2. Winter 2002-2003 ($6.00) | 11. Summer 2007 ($6.00) | 12. Winter 2007-2008 ($6.00) |
| 3. Summer 2003 ($6.00) | 4. Winter 2003-2004 ($6.00) | 13. Summer 2008 ($6.00) | 14. Winter 2008-2009 ($6.00) |
| 5. Summer 2004 ($6.00) | 6. Winter 2004-2005 ($6.00) | 15. Summer 2009 ($6.00) | 16. Winter 2009-2010 ($6.00) |
| 7. Summer 2005 ($6.00) | 8. Winter 2005-2006 ($6.00) | 17. Summer 2010 ($6.00) | 18. Winter 2010-2011 |
| 9. Summer 2006 ($6.00) | 10. Winter 2006-2007 ($6.00) | 19. Summer 2011 (NA) | 20. Winter 2011-2012 (NA) |

Back 17-issue package ($83.00)

Deluxe back package with binder and slipsheets ($102.00)

LauraPalooza 2010: Legacies ($7.00)

4-issue variety pack ($20.00) [indicate which 4 above]

Please make payment to Softegrity, LLC and mail with this order form to: Softegrity LLC, 11958 South Road W, Manter, KS 67862. THESE PRICES ARE FOR DOMESTIC ORDERS ONLY. PLEASE CONTACT US FOR INTERNATIONAL ORDERS.

Thank you for your order!

Continue to next page for details on the issues.

Issue Details:

Summer 2002 (Issue 1) $6.00 includes shipping and tax
Advice on how to avoid eBay scams on LIW merchandise; a news story recounting a conference on current, brand-new LIW research from a conference held in DeSmet in 2001; a feature on Walnut Grove; an extensive look at Ingalls Homestead, Laura's newest "homesite" in DeSmet, and an interview with its owners, the Sullivan family

Winter 2002-2003 (Issue 2) $6.00 includes shipping and tax
An interview with the man who plays Pa's fiddle at events in Mansfield, Missouri; groundbreaking research on Mary Power; a look at the latest grant-funded changes to the Independence, Kansas homesite; how one Laura fan tracked down a log building in Colorado that was dedicated to and named after Rose Wilder Lane

Summer 2003 (Issue 3) $6.00 includes shipping and tax
In-depth look at Little House Site Tours; feature on June Silliman, "Dear Laura" on the Web site for the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library-Museum; review of the compendium of letters between Rose Wilder Lane and Dorothy Thompson, 25 Years of Friendship; update on Burr Oak, IA's fundraising

Winter 2003-2004 (Issue 4) $6.00 includes shipping and tax
Feature plus compelling photos of the Almanzo Wilder Farm; an in-depth look at the South Dakota tornadoes in the 1880s that lend credence to the storms in These Happy Golden Years; a synopsis of Ingalls Homestead's first "Teachers' Day"; review of Old Town in the Green Groves, a controversial "new" book about Laura's years in Burr Oak, IA; FAQs on Laura's manuscript "Pioneer Girl"

Summer 2004 (Issue 5) $6.00 includes shipping and tax
A historical look at the grasshopper plagues of the 1870s Midwest that Laura recounted in On the Banks of Plum Creek; an interview with renowned LIW biographer William T. Anderson; an LIW children's entertainer shares her experiences performing with a real pig's bladder; the history of an annual Gingerbread Sociable in LIW's honor at a library in California; a review of Prairie Girl, Anderson's new juvenile biography on LIW; farewell to Burr Oak, Iowa's longtime director

Winter 2004-2005 (Issue 6) $6.00 includes shipping and tax
A factual look at the "Hard Winter" of 1880-1881, as part of our continuing series on Laura's life in a historical context; photographs and description of a pre-restoration visit to the Wilder home in Malone; a feature on Laura's visit to San Francisco (told about in West from Home); a heartwarming story of organ donation at a homesite museum; Cap Garland -- did he really save DeSmet?; a look at Walnut Grove's 30th Anniversary Celebration

Summer 2005 (Issue 7) $6.00 includes shipping and tax
A Laura fan in the medical field investigates the cause of Mary's blindness; full-color pictures of the annual June festival in Independence; a review of "Laura Ingalls Wilder's Little House on the Prairie," ABC's 2005 miniseries; the story behind the bra named after LIW, plus a photo; information on subscribing to homesite museum newsletters, plus how to become a member; review of The Children's Blizzard, a book about 1880s blizzards in South Dakota and surrounding areas; tracking down the bell Pa helped to buy in On the Banks of Plum Creek; and complete listings of 2005's homesite events.

Winter 2005-2006 (Issue 8) $6.00 includes shipping and tax
Uncle Tom Quiner's journey into the Black Hills is revisited using non-Little House® sources, and the resulting article contains a newly discovered photo of Uncle Tom; musicologist Dale Cockrell tells how "Happy Land," essentially a soundtrack to the Little House® books, came to be; a Laura fan and essayist ponders her life in terms of what Ma Ingalls would do; "Little House" mentions by Lemony Snicket; an interview with The Wilders, a contemporary old-time acoustic band that plays songs from Laura's time; a review of De Smet's Laura-related event from Summer 2005; and complete listings of homesite events.

Summer 2006 (Issue 9) $6.00 includes shipping and tax
All about "those new-fangled name cards"; update on the next installment of the Little House® "soundtrack"; a new opinion column called "Wilder Possibilities"; finding Laura's pathway to home on Rocky Ridge; a letter from the editor and publisher; what Bruce Springsteen has to do with Little House®; an Ingalls house you shouldn't visit; a collection of little known facts about Laura, Rose, and the Little House® series; and complete listing of homesite events.

Winter 2006-2007(Issue 10)*$6.00 includes shipping and tax

Ice harvesting history as compared to "Filling the Ice House" in Farmer Boy; 19th-century life in the sod; celebrating the anniversary of the publication of the Little House Cookbook – an interview with author Barbara Walker; review of Becoming Laura Ingalls Wilder; Did Laura have false teeth?

Summer 2007(Issue 11)*$6.00 includes shipping and tax

Interview with Leslie A. Kelly, Laura Ingalls Wilder's photographer; a conversation with the editor of the latest book about Rose; getting to know four new homesite directors; celebrating 50 years since Laura's passing; all about the Laura Ingalls Wilder pageants in De Smet, Walnut Grove, and Mansfield.

Winter 2007-2008(Issue 12)*$6.00 includes shipping and tax

The Homesteader talks with Pamela Smith Hill, author of the recent biography Laura Ingalls Wilder: A Writer's Life; A living history expert talks about creating historically accurate clothes for The Almanzo Wilder Farm in Malone; Recounting a road trip from Burr Oak to Malone, organized by the homesite at Burr Oak; a preview on Dean Butler's DVD for the Almanzo Wilder Farm, "Almanzo Wilder: Life Before Laura"; a preview of the upcoming "Little House on the Prairie" musical at the Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis.

Summer 2008(Issue 13)*$6.00 includes shipping and tax

In-depth feature on how Dean Butler, "Almanzo" on "Little House on the Prairie," joins the TV and book worlds; a critical look at the "new" single-book spinoffs of the Little House® series; an interview with Jennifer Worick, author of The Prairie Girl's Guide to Life; a sixth-grader's take on The Prairie Girl's Guide to Life

Winter 2008-2009(Issue 14)*$6.00 includes shipping and tax

In-depth interviews with Kevin Massey and Kara Lindsay, "Almanzo" and "Laura," respectively, in the "Little House on the Prairie musical"; announcing a new comprehensive, one-stop Laura Ingalls Wilder web site, Beyond Little House (www.beyondlittlehouse.com); preview for an upcoming conference in summer 2010 about Laura Ingalls Wilder, LauraPalooza; reviews of the Dean Butler-produced DVD "Almanzo Wilder: Life Before Laura" and the Anita Clair Fellman book Little House, Long Shadow

Summer 2009(Issue 15)*$6.00 includes shipping and tax

The author of an upcoming book on Laura shares her experience with dash butter churning; where to buy the right churn; a high school biology teacher talks about walking in Laura's footsteps in trips taken from the pages of her books; looking at Caroline Ingalls' path through life

Winter 2009-2010(Issue 16)*$6.00 includes shipping and tax

Preview of Dean Butler's documentary on Laura's life; extended interview with Kevin Massey and Kara Lindsay, now on the national tour of Little House: the Musical; getting to know the Todd family, New Jersey transplants who run the Prairie House Manor B&B in De Smet; a preview of panels and presentations at LauraPalooza 2010.

Summer 2010(Issue 17)*$6.00 includes shipping and tax

Unraveling the mystery of Laura's gingerbread recipe; all about Maud Hart Lovelace's Mankato-based Betsy-Tacy series; reviews of two LIW-inspired books; Homesite Happenings and Little House® news.

LAURAPALOOZA 2010: Legacies(Special Issue 1)$7.00 includes shipping and tax

A recap of the first-ever multi-day academic conference dedicated to Laura Ingalls Wilder, which took place in July 2010. Six pages of photos and articles to help you re-live the event or experience it through the eyes of those who were there.

Winter 2010-2011(Issue 18)*$6.00 includes shipping and tax

An extensive interview with meteorologist and LauraPalooza speaker Barbara Mayes Boustead; a feature on last fall's groundbreaking Laura exhibit in Michigan, plus photos; a little something about a buffalo wallow; an introduction to the new historical director, Michelle Martin, in Independence and what to expect from the site in the next few years; Homesite Happenings and Little House® news.