LauraPalooza 2010:

Legacies

The first-ever multi-day conference of its kind for fans, educators, and academics who love Laura Ingalls Wilder

Three days of fun and fandom!

July 15-17, 2010

Thursday, Friday, Saturday
Minnesota State University at Mankato
Mankato, Minnesota

Not to be missed:

- LIW biographers Pamela Smith Hill (Laura Ingalls Wilder: A Writer's Life) and John Miller (Becoming Laura Ingalls Wilder)
- Presentations of original, current research on Laura and her daughter, Rose
- Authors' reception with the Wilder books you know and love
- Little-House themed entertainment

Also on the schedule are tentative appearances by William Anderson, foremost authority on Laura Ingalls Wilder, and Dean Butler ("Almanzo" on television's Little House on the Prairie), currently working on a documentary about Laura's life

More to be announced as plans are finalized.

Lodging Options

On-Campus

Dormitory suites in the brand new, centrally Located Julia A. Sears Residence Hall (two bedrooms, four beds, one bathroom) are available for $110/pp for Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday nights. This includes all meals.

Off-Campus

Both the AmericInn and Microtel will have a block of rooms set aside at special conference rates (meals not included).

Travel by air:
Minneapolis-Saint Paul International Airport: less than two hours' drive

Nearby attractions:

- Betsy-Tacy Houses in Mankato (special tour hours and kids' activities available)
- Walnut Grove, MN (about a two-hour drive)

Registration information will be forthcoming. Watch www.beyondlittlehouse.com